

【English translation】

1. Those eligible
  - a. Children of foreign staff at Tohoku University who meet both of the following requirements:
    - i. At least one parent is a foreign staff at Tohoku University, as only professors, associate professors, senior associate professors, assistant professors, research associates and researchers*.
    - ii. Applicant has been recommended by Tohoku University.
    - iii. Applicant meets admission requirements of Tohoku International School.

* Researchers are outlined in Article 6, Clause 2 of the National University Corporation Tohoku University Employment Regulations on Fixed-term employment.

2. For Eligible Students
  - a. Tohoku International School agrees to provide the following benefits:
    - i. Students enrolled up to than six months will be exempted from paying 50% of the enrollment fee.
    - ii. Students enrolled for less than six months will receive a waiver of the entire enrollment fee.
  - b. All eligible students will receive a 50% tuition exemption.
3. Tohoku University agrees to the following
  - a. Tohoku University will pay 50% of the enrollment fee for the students mentioned in 2. a. i.
  - b. Tohoku University will pay 50% of the tuition fee for students covered in 2.b. to Tohoku International School.
4. Eligible foreign staff wishing to enroll their children/dependents into Tohoku International School must submit the admission documents to Tohoku International School.
  - a. Upon application eligibility will be reviewed and decided by both Tohoku University and Tohoku International School.
  - b. In the case of eligibility, admission enrollment fee and tuition will be decided according the points agreed upon above.
  - c. Necessary procedures will be agreed upon between Tohoku University and Tohoku International School .

If you have any questions, please contact us at the following address :
nin1@grp.tohoku.ac.jp or supportoffice-r@grp.tohoku.ac.jp